EASTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
CENTRAL DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PLAINTIFF

v.

No. 4:19-cr-437-DPM

TOMMY COLLIER

DEFENDANT

THIRD AMENDED GENERAL CRIMINAL SCHEDULING ORDER

The Court orders the following schedule to move this case forward fairly and efficiently to a prompt resolution.

- Sixty Days Before Trial Date – Government Experts
 - If the defendant requests, the United States must provide the written summary about expert testimony required by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(a)(1)(G).
- Thirty Days Before Trial Date – Defense Experts
 - If the Government requests, the defendant must provide the written summary about expert testimony required by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(b)(1)(C).
- Thirty Days Before Trial Date – File a Joint Report answering these questions:
 - Is this case ready for trial or a plea?
 - If trial-ready, how many six-hour days are needed?

- If a party intends to seek a continuance, how long a delay will be requested and why?
- Twenty-One Days Before Trial Date
 - In trial-ready cases:
 1. File any pre-trial motions. A response to any motion is due seven calendar days after the motion is filed; and
 2. File notice of submitting proposed jury instructions to chambers. Focus on and submit only elements instructions, citing models and authority; the Court will use standard introductory and closing instructions.
 - In cases that are not trial-ready or where a guilty plea will be offered, do one of two things:
 1. Get a plea date set with chambers and submit the proposed plea agreement to chambers; or
 2. File a motion for continuance.

So Ordered.
